

FCJ GIVES BACK

Doing it for the love and not for the likes

When it comes to giving back to the community, we can always depend on our staff to offer a helping hand. Over forty (40) persons from various departments came out on Friday, August 21, 2020 to volunteer in FCJ's annual community project. This year's recipient is the Charles Chin Loy Early Childhood Development Centre in Tivoli Gardens, Kingston.

The reopening of schools is weeks away and FCJ wanted to ensure that our recipient is ready for the new school term as it relates to the COVID-19 guidelines.

The community project saw team FCJ installing six (6) sanitisation stations and four (4) hand washing stations as well as beautifying the playground.

One of our clients, Cals Manufacturing in partnership with FCJ donated eight (8) gallons of sanitiser.

Thank you again to our FCJ Angels who continue to show up and give back.

Team FCJ getting hyped for the day

Client Service Team ready

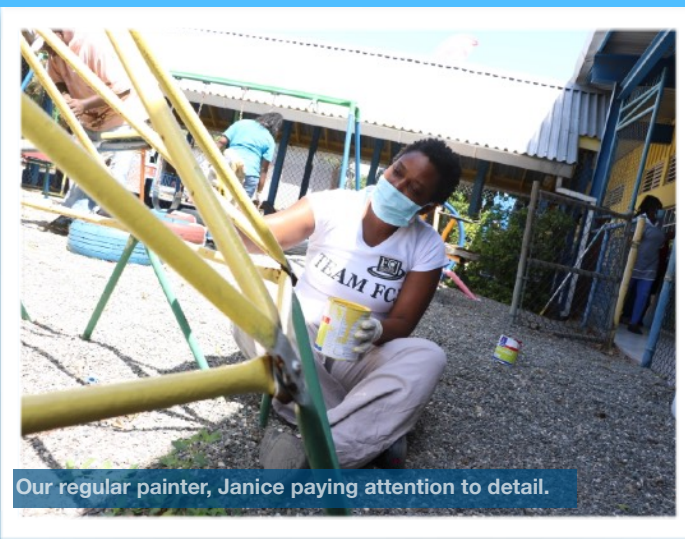

FCJ GIVES BACK

Dara inspecting one of two washing stations installed.

Team FCJ, Mrs Watson (Principal) poses with member of Early Childhood Development Commission.

Our regular painter, Janice paying attention to detail.

Sudeen teaming up with another volunteer to complete the painting of the wash station.

Team FCJ always showing up!

Cals Manufacturing' Carol Ivey, Principal Mrs. Watson and members of team FCJ look on as a student demonstrates the use of the sanitiser machine.

FCJ GIVES BACK

